

Master Program of the Institute of Food Safety and Health Risk Assessment

Academic Year 2024

Mini. Term of Study	2~4 years (excluding suspension for a maximum of 2 years). If the student has excellent grades and wants to graduate in advance, it must be proposed by the advisor, and the application can only be made after passing the Institute Council.
Graduation credits	Aside from graduation thesis (6 credits), one must take 24 credits of courses at least.
Curriculum and Regulations	Required courses: Food Safety and Management I & II (4 credits, 2 credits each semester), Food toxicology (2 credits), Food safety risk assessment (2 credits), Academic research ethics (0 credit) and Seminar (max. 4 credits, 1 credit each semester); Elective courses: the relevant credits courses must be taken in and out of the institute (including inter-school programs) and the advisor must agree.
Application of examination for graduation thesis	When the student is equipped with the requirements of examination for graduation thesis, proposal defense can be conducted at the beginning at every semester (deadline will be announced every semester). During the application period, please go to the school entrance website to post the application. The application form should be signed by the advisor and student and sent to the Institute Office.
Requirements of academic activity	During the period of study, attend academic conference and post a poster (at least once before graduation).
English Requirement for Graduation	TOEIC minimum score above 640 or the same proficiency level of other English assessments.